2. On 13 and 14 August, details consisting of 100 to 110 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets some with tank and artillery insignia, were observed marching from the railroad station toward Steinfoerde. Other details of unarmed soldiers were seen marching from the direction of Steinfoerde to the railroad station, from where they departed toward Berlin on a passenger train. Construction material was being unloaded at the railroad station and hauled by 40 to 50 trucks to the woods near Fuerstenberg. The trucks were operated by German drivers, and German civilians conducted the loading and unloading. According to the material was to be used for the construction of barracks installations near various lakes near Fuerstenberg. **
